Tonight I made this decision:

- To put my trust in God and to receive Jesus as God's gift to me to forgive my sins and lead my life.
This means that for the first time, you've confessed that you, like everyone else, are a sinner and that you need Jesus and have asked him into your heart to lead your life.
- To renew my trust in God and remember that Jesus is God's gift to me for the forgiveness of my sins and to let him lead my life.
This means that you've already done this before but you haven't been living like it lately and want to start over.
